RESIDENTIAL REAL PROPERTY TRANSFER DISCLOSURE ORDINANCE

Effective February 1, 2000, real property improved with a single family residence, townhouse or condominium which has not previously been occupied by its owner or a vacant lot zoned for residential use located in a subdivision any part of which has been record platted within the preceding five years is considered Residential Real Property and is subject to the Residential Real Property Transfer Disclosure Ordinance (Section 29-1 of the Joliet Code of Ordinances). This ordinance requires the Seller of residential real property to provide certain disclosures to prospective buyers prior to entering into a sales contract and to provide proof of compliance with the ordinance by filing a completed and signed Residential Real Property Transfer Information and Disclosure Form with the City of Joliet at the time real estate transfer taxes are paid. Failure to comply with this ordinance may result in a fine of up to $750.00.

The filing of a Residential Real Property Transfer Information and Disclosure Form is not required for the transfer of real property that is not Residential Real Property, as defined in the ordinance. The filing of a Residential Real Property Transfer Information and Disclosure Form is also not required for transfers of Residential Real Property made by a person who is not a Seller, as defined in the ordinance. A Seller is an owner of Residential Real Property who offers Residential Real Property for sale in the ordinary course of business three or more times in the preceding twelve months. Transfers that are not required to pay real estate transfer taxes to the City of Joliet are also not subject to the Residential Real Property Transfer Disclosure Ordinance.
